

REGARDING THE WEEVIL

T. M. SHIRLEY, SPECIAL AGENT OF U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TELLS FARMERS TO GET BUSY AT ONCE.

Having examined a great many cotton fields in Anderson county recently, I find a great many weevils in the cotton, and as they are increasing rapidly, I desire to call your attention to the fact, and suggest remedies for preventing them from destroying a great deal of your cotton; and if you follow out these suggestions you can grow a fine crop of cotton in spite of them.

The cotton is now forming as well as I have seen it, and by saving the squares that it will put on in the next few weeks, a good crop will be assured; and it can be done to a very great extent. The weevils have appeared only in sections of the fields, and by watching closely they can be held in check and kept from spreading. Where there are children they may be hand picked, both weevil and punctured squares. Many farmers are doing this now. Why not you?

Keep your sweeps going, go over your cotton every eight to ten days; don't stop for dry weather; plow shallow, keep a dust mulch; attach a brush to your single trees, which will knock many of the weevils and punctured squares off the stalk, and into the dust mulch, thereby destroying a large per cent, for the hot dust will surely kill them.

But, if seasons continue, pick the squares and burn them, for burying them in moist soil will not kill them.

Remember that one hundred weevils destroyed now will prevent thousands later on, and this will save you from perhaps one to ten bales of cotton. It is up to you to save your crop and make a good yield. Don't neglect to follow the instructions; go now and examine your cotton, and if you find any punctured squares destroy them and hunt out the weevil, for there are but few now, and by doing so you may destroy the whole colony before they have a chance to lay their eggs, and I verily believe you will be abundantly rewarded for your labor.

Yours most truly,
T. M. Shirley,
Special Agent Farmers' Co-Operative Demonstration Work, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

AERO SERVICE FOR AMERICA.

Transport Passengers From New York to Chicago in Thirty Hours.

Mineola, L. I., June 24.—The success of Count Zeppelin in inaugurating a passenger carrying airship may be duplicated in the United States if the hopes of Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin, who built the United States army dirigible No. 1, are fulfilled. Given the necessary capital, Captain Baldwin is confident that a fleet of dirigibles could be put into commission within three months to travel on a regular schedule between New York and Chicago.

"In spite of Zeppelin's success," says Captain Baldwin in an interview given out today, "I still pin my faith on the non-rigid type. By this I mean the balloon type made of rubber silk, instead of an aluminum envelope with many compartments.

"Personally, I think the first dirigible to make the trip will be the smallest in the world ever built for endurance work. In my opinion this craft will not be over 150 feet long and will be driven by a fifty-horse power engine.

"With such a ship, I could transport six persons and their baggage, from New York to Chicago in thirty hours and I would be able to navigate in winds up to ten miles an hour with perfect safety. A craft of this kind would not exceed in cost $50,000, against the $500,000 which is the price of a Zeppelin."

GUTHRIE LOSES FIGHT.

Judge Declares He Has No Jurisdiction in Oklahoma Case.

Guthrie, Okla., June 24.—Guthrie lost its preliminary fight in the federal court yesterday when Judge R. T. Campbell of the eastern district dismissed the bill of jurisdiction filed in equity of W. H. Coyle, a local property owner, asking an injunction to prevent removal of the temporary seat of government from here to Oklahoma City. While the three days' argument took wide range and covered generally that clause of the Oklahoma enabling act requiring the temporary capital to remain here until after 1913, and upon which the suit was predicated, the court expressly reserved any opinion touching either the part of congress to impose this condition or whether the same was binding in view of its acceptance by the constitutional convention.

The people of Guthrie are disappointed at the turn the case took. It may be truthfully said that from the day the case was instituted there was more or less doubt entertained upon the jurisdictional question alone.

"The case is still before the state court," said Judge Frank Dale, one of the attorneys for Guthrie, "and we will follow our rights there. It must be noted, however, that in passing Judge Campbell refrained from expressing an opinion as to the 1913 clause. We still contend that it is binding, and feel that Guthrie's rights have not been jeopardized in the least by the federal court failing to take jurisdiction in this particular litigation."

The case pending in the state courts differs from that before Judge Campbell today, in that it was instituted by County Attorney Hepburn in behalf of the people, and while as squarely presenting the issue of validity of the 1913 clause, also raises questions of validity of the ballot title under which the election of June 11 was held.

Disapprove the Plan.

Austin, Texas, June 24.—Disapproval of a unique plan which has been used successfully to force prohibition in the Oakwood precinct of Freestone county was expressed by the attorney general's department in an opinion given to the comptroller, which holds that a person cannot be issued a permit to sell liquor unless actually engaged in the business within a reasonable time. Four citizens of Oakwood secured permits under the Robertson-Fitzhugh law last September, the precinct being entitled to only four. They did not get the permits for use, but to prevent the sale of liquor and made an application to have these renewed. The comptroller is advised not to renew the permits and to ascertain whether four new applicants will actually use them.

Continue Searching For Wendling.

San Antonio, Texas, June 24.—Search for Joseph Wendling, the slayer of Alma Kellner, continues. Chief of Detectives Carney of Louisville, instead of returning home as expected, scoured the country around here and returned today empty handed. He will go to Monterey, Mexico, tonight and sent a telegram to the police there to arrest Wendling if he shows up there. Sheriff Lindsey says Wendling was here March 9, working in a department store, and that on April 8 he applied for work at the intelligence office.

The Professor Knew.

An absent-minded German professor attached to a university in Washington discovered, the other day that he had left his umbrella somewhere. As he had visited three stores, he thought it must be in one of them, so he started back and called at all three in turn. "No umbrella has been found here," the professor was told in the first store. The German shrugged his shoulders and went out.

At the next store the same response was made; whereupon the professor shrugged his shoulders once more and went to the third establishment. There he found his umbrella awaiting him.

"I must say," he said to his family on returning home, "they were more honest at the last place than at the other stores."—Lippincott's.

GOLDSBORO

HEARD FROM

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief.

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms.

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Your druggist keeps it.
